

Premiums and Awards in Fair Arts and Domestic Science Show

Following is the list of premiums and awards in the state fair fine arts and domestic science sections.

Judges—Miss Minette Myers, state instructor industrial education; Miss Margaret Gleason, household economics department University of New Mexico.

Paintings.

Best oil painting—First and second, Mrs. E. W. Fee, Albuquerque.

Best water color—First and second, Irene Fee, Albuquerque.

Best collection—Irene Fee, Albuquerque; portable lamp donated by Anna Hanning.

Hand-Painted China.

Best collection naturalistic design; Best collection conventional design.

Best half dozen plates.

Best sugar and creamer.

Best vase.

All won by the art class of the Women's club.

Quilt and Quilting.

Best worked—Mrs. John Parker, Albuquerque.

Best silk quilt—First, Mrs. Corneille Sundahl; second, Mrs. J. A. Lopez, Albuquerque.

Best quilt of any kind—Mrs. W. S. Fiedler; Rocker donated by Sollie Peters Furniture company.

Knitting and Crocheting.

Best pair slippers—Mrs. William Jenkins; second, Mrs. O. I. Lewis.

Best hood—First, Mrs. E. W. Stevens; second, Mrs. Lewis.

shawl—First, Mrs. Frank Karrick; second, Mrs. A. Tothacher.

Sweater—First, Mrs. Stevens; second, Mrs. Lewis.

Best collar—First, Mrs. C. E. Fairbrother; second, Mrs. Tothacher.

Best doilies (4)—Mrs. Tothacher.

Crocheted bed spread—First, Mrs. H. B. Springer; second, Mrs. Jenkins.

Knit spread—First, Mrs. Eugene White; second, Mrs. Tothacher.

Blanket—First, Mrs. Tothacher; second, Mrs. W. O. Bletcher.

Best quilt—First, Mrs. H. L. Marion, Mountainair; second, Mrs. Stevens.

Bath set—First, Mrs. C. A. Bennett, Silver City; second, Mrs. Lewis.

Hood—First, Margaret Jenkins; second, Mrs. Bletcher.

Best collection—Mrs. O. I. Lewis.

Carpet sweater, donated by T. Blakemore.

White Embroidery.

Pillow cases—First, Mrs. Bennett; second, Mrs. E. S. Bostwick, Hagerman.

Towel—First, Mrs. J. C. Castro; second, Mrs. Bostwick.

Centerpiece—First, Mrs. C. W. Wensell; second, Mrs. Bostwick.

Lunch cloth—First, Mrs. Wensell; second, Mrs. Lewis.

Best doilies—First, Mrs. Wensell; second, Mrs. Wensell.

Corset cover—First, Mrs. Tothacher.

Shirt waist—First, Mrs. Castro; second, Mrs. Wensell.

Lighter cover—First, Mrs. Lewis.

Coaster—First, Mrs. Castro; Hat of plume, donated by Hartley Millinery; second, Mrs. Bostwick.

Donated by O. A. Matson company.

Colored Embroidery.

Bag sofa pillow—First, Mrs. Bletcher; second, Mrs. Lewis.

Library scarf—Mrs. Fiedler; second, Miss Nellie Shaw Deming.

Center piece—First, Mrs. Parker; second, Mrs. A. C. Hicks.

Shirt waist—First, Mrs. Castro; second, Mrs. Wensell.

Best collection—Mrs. Hicks; silk waist, donated by Rosenwald Bros.

Fine Hand Work.

Undergarment—First, Mrs. Bostwick; second, Mrs. Castro.

Child's dress—First, Mrs. Bostwick.

Best cake—Pike's Peak flour—

Mrs. Horton.
Best plate of biscuits, Pike's Peak flour, Mrs. Horton.

Children's Department.

Best loaf of bread, girl under 16—First, Violet Thompson; second, Miss Stimp; third premium, pound of candy donated by Schaff & David.

Best cake—First, Miss Beckwith; second, Alice Herndon; box of candy, donated by Powell's drug store.

Doughnuts—First, Miss Stripe.

Special Premiums.

Best exhibit in culinary science department by any one person—First, Mrs. Fairbrother; 100 pounds of Club flour, donated by W. L. Hawkin.

Best loaf of bread of any kind—Miss Thompson; 2 pounds Mocha and Java coffee, donated by San Jose market, and sack of flour, donated by Hungarian Mills.

Best collection—Mrs. Tothacher.

Best portrait, donated by Gray.

Best collection—Mrs. Bryce.

Best collection naturalistic design.

Best collection conventional design.

Best half dozen plates.

Best sugar and creamer.

Best vase.

All won by the art class of the Women's club.

Best quilt and quilting.

Best worked—Mrs. John Parker, Albuquerque.

Best silk quilt—First, Mrs. Corneille Sundahl; second, Mrs. J. A. Lopez, Albuquerque.

Best quilt of any kind—Mrs. W. S. Fiedler; Rocker donated by Sollie Peters Furniture company.

Collection of batting—Mrs. German, Mountainair; cut glass donated by S. T. Yann.

Luncheon set—Mrs. Bostwick; handbag, donated by Albuquerque Trunk factory.

Professional needlewomen—Mrs. J. H. Toulouse; hat, donated by Ferguson.

Best fancy quilt—First, Mrs. W. S. Fiedler; second, Mrs. E. E. Fiedler.

Centerpiece, crocheted edge—Mrs. With.

Fancy Towel—First, Mrs. Fiedler; second, Mrs. Shelley.

Silk embroidery—First, Mrs. Bletcher; second, Mrs. Bennett.

Born centerpiece, crocheted edge—First, Mrs. Bostwick; second, Mrs. Bostwick.

Best quilt—Rocker donated by Sollie Peters Furniture company.

Knitting and Crocheting.

Best pair slippers—Mrs. William Jenkins; second, Mrs. O. I. Lewis.

Best hood—First, Mrs. E. W. Stevens.

shawl—First, Mrs. Frank Karrick; second, Mrs. A. Tothacher.

Collection of hardangers—First, Mrs. Horn; premium donated by Mrs. Newcomer.

Hand woven rug—First, Mrs. C. Wolf.

Best collection of fancy work from Luna county—Mrs. Nellie Shaw Deming; premium donated by Bank of Deming.

Best collection from Chaves county—Mrs. Bostwick; Hagerman; premium donated by Citizens National Bank of Roswell.

Children's Department.

Apron—First, Mac Beckwith; second, Margaret Stripe.

Corset cover—First, Helen Bruce.

Pillow cover—First, Miss Beckwith; second, Margaret Blank.

Nightgown—First, Miss Beckwith.

Centerpiece—First, Marion Doid.

Crochet—First, Miss Stripe.

Handkerchief case—Lucille Dunn; pound of candy, donated by Schaff & David.

Bags strong in 5 cents higher at the start today, as long as the order buying trade lasted, top $5. Packers held out for lower prices and paid $1.50 to $1.75 for most of their bags.

Packers are determined to put prices down, as besides the adverse feature of a poor outlet for hard and other products, the item of carrying a big investment in pack product, wherein some during these tight money times.

They are selling strong, 10 to 20 cents higher than last week, steady today.

There is a big demand for feeders yet to be filled, Illinois and Indiana distillers have bought 320 cars of feeders here since the first of September.

Illinois and Kentucky distillers want many more yet.

Quarantine cattle are running poor in quality, as they are selling strong, 10 to 20 cents higher than last week, steady today.

There is no priority right to the matter of selecting the land and may be deferred, in part, by home-steader who can enter it as quickly as the state can select its acreage.

The state has no priority right to the matter of selecting the land and may be deferred, in part, by home-steader who can enter it as quickly as the state can select its acreage.

Sheep and lambs are stronger today, receipts 18,000 head. Top lambs sold practically straight, at $1.40, 62 pounds average, middle class lambs sold around $1.35, feeding lambs $1.30 to 1.75, a band of breeding yearlings, 62 pounds, at $1.75 today. Packers are taking big numbers, using 60% of the 55,000 received here last week. Liberal runs will continue another week or two, during which time prospective buyers of feeding or breeding stock should get their supplies.

J. A. RICKART.

Light biscuits—First, Mrs. C. W. Chidester; second, Mrs. Lewis.

Dinner scarf—First, Mrs. Castro.

Best collecting—Mrs. Castro; Hat of plume, donated by Hartley Millinery; second, Mrs. Bostwick.

Donated by O. A. Matson company.

Colorful Embroidery.

Bag sofa pillow—First, Mrs. Bostwick; second, Mrs. Lewis.

Library scarf—Mrs. Fiedler; second, Miss Nellie Shaw Deming.

Center piece—First, Mrs. Parker; second, Mrs. A. C. Hicks.

Shirt waist—First, Mrs. Castro; second, Mrs. Wensell.

Best collection—Mrs. Hicks; silk waist, donated by Rosenwald Bros.

Fine Hand Work.

Undergarment—First, Mrs. Bostwick; second, Mrs. Castro.

Child's dress—First, Mrs. Bostwick.

Best cake—Pike's Peak flour—

Mrs. Horton.

Best plate of biscuits, Pike's Peak flour, Mrs. Horton.

Children's Department.

Best loaf of bread, girl under 16—First, Violet Thompson; second, Miss Stimp; third premium, pound of candy donated by Schaff & David.

Best cake—First, Miss Beckwith; second, Alice Herndon; box of candy, donated by Powell's drug store.

Doughnuts—First, Miss Stripe.

Special Premiums.

Best exhibit in culinary science department by any one person—First, Mrs. Fairbrother; 100 pounds of Club flour, donated by W. L. Hawkin.

Best loaf of bread of any kind—Miss Thompson; 2 pounds Mocha and Java coffee, donated by San Jose market, and sack of flour, donated by Hungarian Mills.

Best collection—Mrs. Tothacher.

Best portrait, donated by Gray.

Best collection—Mrs. Bryce.

Best collection naturalistic design.

Best collection conventional design.

Best half dozen plates.

Best sugar and creamer.

Best vase.

All won by the art class of the Women's club.

Best quilt and quilting.

Best worked—Mrs. John Parker, Albuquerque.

Best silk quilt—First, Mrs. Corneille Sundahl; second, Mrs. J. A. Lopez, Albuquerque.

Best quilt of any kind—Mrs. W. S. Fiedler; Rocker donated by Sollie Peters Furniture company.

Collection of batting—Mrs. German, Mountainair; cut glass donated by S. T. Yann.

Luncheon set—Mrs. Bostwick; handbag, donated by Albuquerque Trunk factory.

Professional needlewomen—Mrs. J. H. Toulouse; hat, donated by Ferguson.

Best silk quilt—Second, Mrs. E. E. Fiedler.

Centerpiece, crocheted edge—Second, Mrs. With.

Fancy Towel—First, Mrs. Fiedler; second, Mrs. Shelley.

Silk embroidery—First, Mrs. Bletcher; second, Mrs. Bennett.

Born centerpiece, crocheted edge—First, Mrs. Bostwick; second, Mrs. Bostwick.

Best quilt—Rocker donated by Sollie Peters Furniture company.